

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Lessons & Payment

Lessons are carried out on a weekly basis. Individual slot times and duration are agreed with myself, beforehand.

All lesson fee's are non-refundable.

Fee's are to be paid a month in advance (either 4 or 5 weeks in total, depending on the month - you will be notified).

Payment is to be made on the week commencing the 1st of every month, Monday

- Sunday and before you start your new session.

Outstanding/unresolved payments can result in my refusal to teach.

Students will be informed in at-least a month's advance of any increase in lesson fee's.

Cancellations

All unauthorized cancellations, any time after booking, are subject to being forfeited with no replacement slot.

This includes sickness and forgetting about the lesson.

Holidays & Authorized Absences

Holidays and authorized absences can be deducted from your bill, providing I'm notified before you make the booking.

However, if regular authorized absences become consistent, you may be asked to pay in order to keep your regular slot.

Absent Tutor

In the event of my absence, due to any circumstance, i.e. sickness or a gig booking. You will be reimbursed with a replacement slot the same week.

If this isn't possible, your lesson fee will be deducted from your following months bill.

Practice & Commitment

A students rate of progress depends entirely on the individuals commitment and work ethic. Whilst you attend lessons, it is expected of you to practice guitar on, ideally or as close to; a daily basis.

If you are stuck, confused or would like me to check over your work (via video recording) during the week, feel free to get in contact me.

I cannot always guarantee I will be available to help but if I can, I will!

Notice for Permanent Cancellation

If/when you plan to leave, whilst this is not compulsory, a month's notice along with a positive Google/Facebook review would be a huge help and tremendously appreciated!

Note

Thank you for your time when reading through my Terms & Conditions.

If you have any queries or unanswered questions, please contact me!